LETTER FROM THE EDITOR...

Hello, TCAS! Welcome to another edition. This month we finally find out who will be the lucky winner of the molasses raffle. It is also time for our holiday party and we are preparing to say good bye to 2008. This is also the one year anniversary of our news letter. Hope everyone had a great year and have a very special holiday season. See you all in January!

Good luck to everyone.

Happy hunting!

-Amy

JOKE OF THE MONTH

As a butcher is shoeing a dog from his shop, he sees $10 and a note in his mouth, reading: "10 lamb chops, please." Amazed, he takes the money, puts a bag of chops in the dog's mouth, and quickly closes the shop. He follows the dog and watches him wait for a green light, look both ways, and trot across the road to the bus stop. The dog checks the timetable and sits on the bench. When the bus arrives, he walks around the front and looks at the number, then boards the bus. The butcher follows, dumbstruck. As the bus travels out into the suburbs, the dog takes in the scenery. After a while he stands on his back paws to push the "stop" button, then the butcher follows him off. The dog runs up to a house and drops the bag on the stoop. He goes back down the path, takes a big run, and throws himself against the door. He does this again and again. No answer. So he jumps on a wall, walks around a garden, beats his head against the window, jumps off, and waits at the front door. A big guy opens it and starts cursing at the dog. The butcher runs up screams at the guy: "What the hell are you doing? This dog is a genius!" The owner responds, "Genius, my foot. It's the second time this week he's forgotten his key!"

HELPFUL TIPS FROM THE CENTRAL FLORIDA CLUB

Having trouble with bugs when you hunt? Get some AVON Skin-So-Soft, original bath oil. Pour it in a spray bottle and keep it in your car or truck with your MD gear. Spray it on your arms, neck, legs as you would insect repellent. It works – give it a try.
